St. James's, April 22.

AN humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Wendover in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Richard Hampden, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Marqueſs of Wharton.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, April 14. This Court has received Letters from Conſtantinople of the 10th of January, which ſay the Turks intend to act defenſively this next Campaign againſt the Venetians, and to divide their Army againſt the Emperour into three Bodies, whereof one is to cover Belgrade, a ſecond to make a Diverſion towards Walachia, and the third to form a flying Camp to be made uſe of as Occaſion may require. The Advices from Hungary tell us the Troops are all in Motion towards the Rendezvous at Futack, where a Camp is marked out, and where all the Regiments from Tranſylvania, except four, are already arrived. Some Boats with Officers of the Emperour's Houſhold are gone up the Danube as far as Ratiſbon, to bring hither the Dutcheſs of Wolfenbuttel-Blankenberg the Empreſs's Mother. The Emperour, in Conſideration of the faithful Services of the Count de Cifuentes, lately Viceroy of Sardinia, has given him the Dutchy of Mandas and the Marquiſate of Villa-Sidro and Palmas in that Kingdom, which Eſtates are to deſcend to his Heirs, and are of the yearly Income of thirty thouſand Florins.

Genoa, April 13. The Regents of this Republick, upon Information privately given them, ſent Orders a few Days ago to the Governour of Final, to ſeize two Brothers Inhabitants of that Place named Alizzeri, together with a Relation of theirs one Mantilieri a Franciſcan Fryar: The two firſt were ſeized accordingly; the Fryar being alſo taken, was intruſted to the Superiour of his Convent to be kept in ſafe Cuſtody, but he afterwards found Means to eſcape. By the Papers ſeized with theſe Perſons it appears, that they with ſeveral other Inhabitants of Final, had engaged in a Deſign to ſurprize one of the Gates of Savona, and put that Place as well as Final into the Hands of a foreign Power. This Diſcovery has put this State into a great Alarm, and the Regents have diſpatched an Expreſs to the Emperour to repreſent the whole Affair to him. Laſt Week 700 Men were ſent from hence to Savona, and the Garriſon of that Place was ordered to Final; alſo Bombs and other Ammunition are ſent to Savona, and the Officers of the Artillery there are changed.

Geneva, April 19. 'Tis adviſed from Turin, that the Court is gone to la Venerie, and that the King of Sicily is to ſet out very ſoon for Nice to ſee his Fleet which is expected there from Sicily, and he is to come from thence to Savoy to meet the Queen and Prince of Piemont, who will be in a few Days at St. Jean de Mauriennes, where the Prince is to drink the Waters. The whole Court is to proceed afterwards to Chambery, where the Caſtle is already fitted up for their Reception. His Sicilian Majeſty has of late authoriſed a very advantagious Eſtabliſhment made at Turin, by the Charity-Hoſpital of that City, for the Relief of the Poor. The Directors of that Hoſpital having got together all the Beggars, and others in great Want, to the Number of 600, of both Sexes, cloathed them all; and on the 7th Inſtant they marched through the chief Streets of Turin in ſolemn Proceſſion, at which all the Fraternities, Religious Orders, and ſecular Clergy aſſiſted. After the Proceſſion they were all placed at Tables in the Square before the Caſtle, and Victuals was ſerved up to them by ſeveral Gentlemen and Ladies of the Court. Their Sicilian Majeſties ſaw this Proceſſion and Entertainment from the
